

James Auther Boeckholt

March 12, 1934 - February 7, 2022

James Arthur Boeckholt Sr., was born on March 12 1934 to Art and Gertrude Boeckholt. He was the oldest son of nine siblings. "Jim" was a hard-working man who served in the United States Army and in leading by example he taught a great work ethic to us all. Jim married the love of his life the day he married Rita Mae Kingsley. Their relationship was one of chaos, passion, and never-ending love that resulted in six children of their own. James Arthur Boeckholt Jr., John Fae Boeckholt, and Shawnia Mae Wright, (the twins) Kimberley Christine Boeckholt, Robin Lynn Bloxham, and Bart Buriah Boeckholt. Jim was survived by six of his siblings, all of his children, and more than 60 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great great grandchildren. Jim was a family man. His level of patience and understanding coupled with kindness and love was immeasurable. Jim had a gentle spirit and a love for music. The joy that was brought to his family and friends through his singing and harmonica playing will never be forgotten. Jim passed peacefully on February 07, 2022. His nieces and nephews are too many to name but it has been said that he was a loving influence in their lives as well. Jim is missed and loved by many who will ensure that his legacy lives on in all of us.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ James Arthur Boeckholt Sr., was born on March 12 1934 to Art and Gertrude Boeckholt. He was the oldest son of nine siblings. "Jim" was a hard working man who served in the United States Army and in leading by example he taught a great work ethic to us all. Jim married the love of his life the day he married Rita Mae Kingsley. They're relationship was one of chaos, passion, and a never ending love that resulted in six children of their own. James Arthur Boeckholt Jr., John Fae Boeckholt, and Shawnia Mae Wright, (the twins) Kimberley Christine Boeckholt, Robin Lynn Bloxham, and Bart Buriah Boeckholt. Jim was survived by six of his siblings, all of his children, and more than 60 grand children, great grandchildren, and great great grand children. Jim was a family man. His level of patience and understanding coupled with kindness and love was immeasurable. Jim had a gentle spirit and a love for music. The joy that was brought to his family and friends through his singing and harmonica playing will never be forgotten. Jim passed peacefully on February 07, 2022. His nieces and nephews are too many to name but it has been said that he was a loving influence in their lives as well. Jim is missed and loved by many who will insure that his legacy lives on in all of us.

Kimberly Boeckholt - February 21 at 06:10 PM

KB

“ My Dad! One of the strongest, kindest men ever to live. I always felt safe with him and protected by him. This man was a blessing in my life. A gentle giant. I'm proud to have been given the honor of calling him Dad. He is loved and missed.

Kimberly Boeckholt - February 21 at 05:13 PM