

Angelina Matz

October 14, 1946 - March 5, 2026

Angelina Matz 79

Born October 14, 1946, and passed away on March 5, 2026

She was the eldest of 5 children born to Biagio and Anna Capobianco in Brooklyn, NY. At the age of 6, the family moved to Lynbrook, NY, on Long Island. In 1969, she married Roger David Matz, and they moved to Corning, CA. She worked for Olive Elementary School as a teacher's aide for over 30 years. She was a self-published author. She loved to cook, can, and bake. She is survived by her husband, Roger David, her son, Roger Anthony, and daughter Anne Keller (Albert) and granddaughter Emma Keller. Her sisters, MaryAnn Boehringer (Ron), Bernadette Purkey, and her brother, Paul Capobianco, and numerous extended family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents and her youngest brother, Anthony. Her services will be on Wednesday, March 25th, at 11 am at the Immaculate Conception Church in Corning, with burial to follow at Sunset Hills Cemetery in Corning. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in her name to the Corning Rural Volunteer Fire Department, Corning Library, or a charity of your choice.

“ My heart is broken for the Matz family in your time of loss. Mrs. Matz was a loving (if not a little stern) lady and my mom never had to worry about me misbehaving when I stayed at Rod's house. Most recently, she graciously opened her home to me when I needed respite (and a hot shower) after my own mother's passing. All in all, Mrs. Matz was a class act and will be sorely missed.
