

Arlette Milagro Crane

March 14, 1966 - September 2, 2017

Arlette Milagro Crane, also known as Teeter, passed away on September 2, 2017.

She was born on March 14, 1966, in San Diego, California, to John and Esther Bennett.

Her parents moved to Corning at an early age, and she attended Corning schools throughout her childhood before graduating from Corning High School in 1984.

Arlette married Brian Crane on August 12, 1989, and spent much of her adult life raising her five children and providing a “home away from home” for nieces, nephews, and family friends. She was a licensed fitness instructor and homeschooled for many years.

When she could find the time, she attended Grays Harbor College, Shasta College and Butte College. She was a woman of deep faith who regularly attended both Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Corning and St. Stephen the First Martyr Catholic Church in Sacramento.

Arlette was a matriarchal figure, known for hosting large family parties. She made friends easily and her smile could light up a room. She loved children and was known as “Aunt Teeter” to both family and non-family.

She was a talented dancer, photographer and painter. She enjoyed traveling and gardening.

She is preceded in death by her daughter Leona,
