

Arnold Augustus 'Ole Gus' St. George

April 14, 1933 - November 5, 2023

Arnold Augustus St. George "Ole Gus" born April 14, 1933, near Boston Mass., passed onto a better place on Nov. 5, 2023. He had fallen and was in a care home in Chico. In April his entire family gathered at a Chinese restaurant for his 90th birthday. Gus was a quiet man, very meticulous. He had many talents, including oil painting, playing the ukulele, juggling and a great recitation of Old Rivers made famous by Walter Brennon. Having two daughters, he gained five sons and another daughter through marriages. He had a big enough heart to love them all. He was a father to eight children and had 18 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren. He leaves a loving wife, Charlotte, and a brother, Raymond, as well. He will be greatly missed.
