“ all my love and condolenses. i talked several times to uncle butch about god and i know he isw a believer. he was the first to tell me about shepherds chapel and pastor arnold murray, so i firmly believe butch is in heaven. he was only about five years older than me, like a big brother. i was amazed at how accurate he was with a b.b. gun. butch lived life full steam ahead. he told me stories about working in a warehouse driving a forklift and instead of just putting in the hours on the job he would get in races in the warehouse with other employees on the forklift and he would laugh that impish uncle butch laugh of his. i know he loved his wife norma greatly and whenh she died it must have hurt him deeply. i don`t know how heaven works but i think norma and butch are reunited again, looking down on his children and grandchildren who he was so proud of
