

Conception Maria Kehano

January 9, 1938 - May 12, 2021

Our precious mother Conception Maria Kehano passed away on Wednesday May 12th, 2021 at my home,(Delia) in Corning, California. Since July 2018, she battled with the effects of a severe stroke and dementia.

Conception was born in Hana, Maui on January 9th, 1938 to Roque and Genirosa Sajolan. Conception, also known as Connie to her friends, was raised in Maui, along with 2 sisters and 4 brothers.

Connie Kehano beloved wife of the late Ralph Kehano. Who revealed his devotion to her when he became her caregiver in 2018 until his passing in August of 2020. They lived in Maui and later moved to Stockton California where they raised their children and lived for the last 57 years. Predeceased by her 2 children, Dwayne and Jeil, and her great-granddaughter, Selena Buchanan. Much loved mother is survived by her 2 older children; Delia Hoffman and Ralph Kehano Jr. Grandchildren; Sienna, Shaydon, Lisa, Anna, and Paul. Great-grandchildren; Sariah, Selah, Levi Keola, Kayla, Isaiah, Ishmael, Joel, Kaine, and Celeste. Great-great granddaughter Kasiah and another great-great granddaughter due in August.

Connie was a graduate of Maui Baldwin High School. Throughout her young life she worked various jobs in the food industry. Later, when she moved to Stockton she held a position as warehouse worker on Rough and Ready Island in San Joaquin County, from which she retired.

Connie lived a full life as a wonderful mother, wife, homemaker, and working mom. She was always there for us. She accepted relatives and friends to share our home with open arms. She loved to travel, enjoyed camping, bowling, and playing cards. She was also skilled in knitting needles, and crochet hooks, to which she passed on to me. Most of all she loved God, and raised us accordingly.
