“ I lived by Cord in the 1970’s. Though I was 4 years younger, he always found time to play catch with me in the street. Even at a youthful age, he had such a cannon for an arm. It was all you could do to keep your glove on and protect your body. Those sessions were instrumental in my baseball development. Later in life, we played in many softball tournaments, and he showed off that arm on many occasions.

*Rest in Peace, Cord
