“ Dave "The Plumber" Nelson well be missed by many. Setting on the tailgate with a cold one (sometimes with Calmato and lime mixed in) relaxing to music and talking about almost everything. Sometimes the music was so loud that you could barely hear each other, one of John's wives Torrie would come over bet her fist on Dave's trailer door, Dave knew it was time to turn the music down. Once early on when Dave first had moved into Scotty's and the water was on the rise, Dave hooked up to his trailer to move it up to higher ground it was hard to pull for some reason and once it was out of the water he discovered that he had a flat tire and the trailer was setting on a lawn mower.

Dave please say hi to everyone, Eli, Pops, Scotty, Mary, Lorain, Garry, Robert, Bobby, Mugsie, and all the others that you are meeting up with. Until we meet up again Happy Trails to you.
