“ 8 bells, the changing of the watch, is a moment that one chapter is ending, while a new one begins. For us, here, it reminds us that Donna's watch is over, it is time for her to rest in peace.

“ As fellow sailors and marina neighbors of sv Magic Carpet and more recently, mv Magic Carpet Grande our community has lost a very accomplished cruiser, world traveler, superb raconteur, and good friend. She will be missed dearly by Teresa and Jim Pinter (sv Pochteca) and all who knew Donna in the Sea of Cortez that she loved so dearly. Fair winds and calm seas to Greg and her family who she talked about so often.
