

Douglas McKay Hanks

March 15, 1963 - October 21, 2015

Douglas McKay Hanks, 52, of Corning, California, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, October 21, 2015, of cancer. Doug was born in Corning on March 15, 1963. He attended local schools, and graduated from Corning High School in 1981. He attended College of the Siskiyous. Doug worked for Redding Oil Company for over thirty years, managing the Corning Valero (76) Station. Doug enjoyed sports both as an athlete and as a fan. Doug's teams were the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Cincinnati Reds, the Philadelphia 76ers, and the Louisville Cardinals. He played softball and basketball for many years on local teams and founded the DHFL—Doug Hanks Football League. Doug will always be remembered for his witty sense of humor and for his love of his family and friends. He hosted family holiday celebrations in his home. He is survived by his sons, Casey and Eric Hanks, his brothers, Gary and Brad (Laurie) Hanks, his nephews Mike (Sandy) Huff, Carson and Cory Hanks, and Dillon Lucero and nieces, Rebecca Henthorne, Amber Hanks, and Amanda Lucero, as well as and his great-nephew and great nieces and many cousins. Doug was preceded in death by his parents, Floyd Hanks and Gladys Wiedel and his sister, Janet Hanks. Doug's family is grateful to Shannon Minor, Debbie Gonzales, and Cindy Adams, as well as Dr. Randolph and the staff at Enloe Regional Cancer Center and Doug's Enloe HomeCare and Hospice nurses for the loving care that they faithfully provided. A luncheon will be held at the First Baptist Church Gymnasium at 506 Colusa Street in Corning.
