“ Beautiful sentiments shared about our loving mom and Grandma Jackie. She loved each and every one of her daughters and grandchildren fiercely. She will be watching over all of us from heaven above. ❤️

pure gold and was the sweetest, kindest and most gentle loving Mom, Grandma, Great Grandma and Friend to everyone that was lucky enough to have her in their life. We miss you and love you but have peace knowing you are now where you have been wanting to be. Until we all meet again someday... ❤️

My beautiful grandmother. She was a gentle and kind spirit that raised four feisty wonderful daughters on her own. She was strong, confident, courageous, and funny. I am so proud of her and the life she paved for the family she leaves behind her. We are better for it. She is the last of my grandparents to leave this Earth and it is hard to process but I know she is so happy for this moment and is JOYFULLY dancing and laughing with all of our loved ones who
