

James "Jim" Benjamin Darrow

May 14, 1927 - September 26, 2024

James Benjamin Darrow, age 97, of Corning, CA, passed away peacefully on September 26th surrounded by loved ones.

Born on May 24th, 1927, in Laclede County, Missouri, Jim proudly began his military service at the end of WWII. While waiting to ship out to the Pacific, the Japanese surrendered unconditionally. Jim was called back to service by the Army following the North Korean and Chinese invasion of South Korea. He honorably reported for duty and was sent into battle where he earned the Combat Infantryman's Badge and a Purple Heart. His sense of duty and honor carried throughout his life and touched everyone who knew him.

A passionate fisherman, Jim could often be found on the water, casting a line, and enjoying the calm of the water. Those closest to him will forever treasure memories of stories shared during those times.

Jim was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Doris (Clary) Darrow, as well as his siblings, Glen, Kate, Robert, Richard, and Ollie. He is survived by his siblings, Earl, Pauline, Clay (Joanna), who continue to honor his memory.

Jim leaves behind a loving family, including his children: Scott Darrow, Dave Darrow, and Trena Cain. He also leaves behind his three grandchildren: Rene, Emily, and Hannah. Though they mourn his passing, they take comfort in knowing he is reunited with his wife, Doris.
