

Jenny Betty Ann Lucero

April 12, 1945 - October 6, 2017

Grandma was born as Jenny Betty Ann Gutierrez on April 12, 1945 to Ismal and Mary Gutierrez. She was born in Silver Cliff, Colorado and shared a childhood with 7 other sisters and brothers. She spent most of her childhood in Colorado.

Grandma later married Samuel Garcia in Canon City on January 11, 1964. Together they had 3 children - John James, Sheryl and Caroline. They spent the years of their marriage in Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

In August of 1977, grandma married Levi Lucero. Through her marriage to Levi, grandma loved and raised 5 more children, Michael, Nadine, Lee, Martin and Rodney.

Eventually, life lead grandma to California in 1986, where she spent the rest of her years enjoying her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Grandma was equally as strong as she was loving and giving. She was also stubborn and a dare rarely intimidated her. One time grandma took a dare to ride a waterslide in Redding. A waterslide doesn't seem like a big deal, only grandma was 64 years old and she didn't know how to swim. She was the only one we knew who could almost drown in 3 feet of water. That was one of the funniest times with her we can remember.

Grandma loved to bake, crochet, quilt and play the casino slots. She was passionate about her children and her family. She loved dancing to polkas, Elvis Presley's Love Me Tender and Roberto Griego's "Ya No Quiero Sufir". She also loved pies and made the best cream pies. She loved tortillas and swore that the best beans only came from Colorado. She loved lady bugs, holiday decorating, her grandbabies, and traveling back to Colorado. Grandma was preceded in death by her parents, Samuel Garcia, John James, and her brothers Wilbern and Joseph.
