“ Julie came into our lives when she became one of my mom's in-home caregivers along with her good friend Betsy. They shared the duties of caring for my mom. She brightened up the room each day when she arrived, and quickly became a close family friend to us all. She has always been on our minds, even when we moved mom in a care facility, and didn't see her in person anymore. But we kept in touch and were sorry to hear of all the pain she was suffer through. But now she can finally RIP. Love you Julie, The Estes Family
