

Karina Ocampo

March 31, 1989 - January 17, 2023

He Placed His Love Upon You Jesus knew you were fatigued, and no treatment was in sight, so He placed His Love upon you and with a guiding light, He sent you peace and blessings, to help you on your way, and never regret the life you lived, on this your passing day.
We cherish the love and the time we shared, we know how much you really cared.
Our sadness real, our pain remains as you go on to higher plains.
