

Kimberly Sue McCloud

September 13, 1961 - January 1, 2022

Kimberly Sue McCloud, 60 passed away January 1, 2022 at her home in Red Bluff, California.

She was born to Andrew and Phyllis Dalson on September 13, 1961 in Ukiah, CA. She grew up in Round Valley, California and attended Sherman Indian High School in Riverside, California. Kimberly graduated from Butte Community College in Oroville, California with an Associates Degree in Business Administration.

Kimberly is survived by her daughter Ambrosia Rico, granddaughter Aiyanna Rico, son-in law Bulmaro Rico all of Corning, father Andrew Dalson of Gerber, sisters: Ann Dalson of Red Bluff, Angelia Horne of Gerber, Belinda Juarez of Gerber, Deborah Simonsen of Cottonwood and brother Andy Dalson Jr. of Willows. She has many nieces, nephews, great nieces & nephews, cousins and friends.

Kimberly was an ICWA (Indian Child Welfare Act) worker for her tribe and previously, a CASA Advocate. She had a passion for children. She felt that kids needed someone to help advocate for them since they were young and innocent going through the court system. She was a Sunday School teacher and taught many children throughout the years about Jesus and Heaven. Her faith in God helped guide her during her lifetime and she wrote a book capturing her story, "He Died So I could Live". She was proud of her family and loved them very much. She was a minky blanket fanatic. She loved watching and purchasing minky blankets through live shows on Facebook.

She spent a lot of time at home sewing and taking care of her dogs Nola and Nashoba. Kimberly had a heart of gold and would do anything to help someone in need.

A viewing is scheduled for Monday, January 10, 2022 from 4:00 -7:00 pm at Hall Brothers Mortuary in Corning. A funeral service is scheduled for Tuesday, January 11, 2022 at 11:00 am at the Family Bible Church in Corning. She will be laid to rest at Sunset Hill Cemetery next to her granddaughter Nevaeh Rico.
