

Leslie A Sutfin

December 31, 1942 - April 24, 2022

Leslie A. Sutfin came into this world on December 31, 1942 & departed peacefully from his home surrounded by family on April 24, 2022, in Corning, Ca. He was preceded in death by his parents, Omar Les & Hollis Sutfin, & brother, Clay. He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Cheryl Sutfin, son Reese (Terri) Sutfin, daughter Christie (Dan) Capik, brother Trent (Sharel) Sutfin & sister Charlene (Jack) White, as well as numerous nieces, nephews & cousins. Leslie grew up & spent the majority of his life ranching & farming, active in Tehama Co Cattlemen's & a leader of Woolgrowers. He finished his working career as an operational manager for Wilbur Ellis Co. He was a skilled machinist, mechanic & equipment operator, but also talented in drawing, writing, & photography, which was a passion. He loved fishing, woodworking, & traveling in his spare time. He will be remembered for his universal kindness, never-ending sense of humor, & unique ability for storytelling. Most of all he was a devoted husband & father. Due to his request, there will be no services. In lieu of flowers, any donations can be made to the Corning Fire Department in his name.
