Linda Yvonne Pritchett

September 26, 1952 – April 20, 2025

Born in Paradise, California

With deep love and profound sorrow, we share that Linda Yvonne Pritchett—beloved mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, and friend—passed away unexpectedly, yet peacefully, surrounded by love and light, on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2025, in Redding, California.

Born in Paradise, California, Linda embodied the very essence of her birthplace. She lived a life marked by beauty, grace, and quiet strength. To know her was to feel seen, cherished, and held.

A longtime resident of Red Bluff, Linda worked for over 40 years in the strawberry industry as a logistics manager, overseeing the international shipment of strawberry plants. She also expressed her creative side through website design.

Known for her precision, professionalism, and remarkable work ethic, she was even more admired for the kindness and loyalty she brought into every space she entered.

Linda had a passion for creating beauty—through her love of antiques, her impeccable style (especially her shoes!), and the warm, welcoming home she so carefully curated. Her home was a reflection of her spirit: elegant, inviting, and infused with care. Every family gathering—whether a birthday, holiday, or casual dinner—was transformed by her touch into something extraordinary.

She loved deeply and gave endlessly. Never one to ask for help, she instead showed up—time and again—for those she loved. Fiercely tender, quietly brave, and endlessly generous, Linda was a rare and beautiful balance of nurturing strength and graceful independence.

She is survived by her mother, Dorothy Hall; her daughters, Jodi Key and Kelly Ayler; her grandchildren, Skyler Key, Cash Ayler, and Blake Ayler; her brother, John Hall; her nephew, Aaron Hall; her niece, Nicole Owens; and her son-in-law, Ryan Ayler. She is now reunited in spirit with her beloved father, Roy Hall, and her dear sister-in-law, Debra Hall.

Linda's legacy lives on in the beauty she created, the love she gave, and the lives she touched so gracefully. She will be remembered not just for what she did, but for who she was—a woman of timeless elegance, strength, and unwavering devotion.

Her light continues to shine in every bloom in her garden, every laugh around the dinner table, and in the hearts of all who loved her.

“The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.”

Psalm 34:18
