

Luis Gabriel Leon

February 25, 1977 - February 6, 2018

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide,
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

“ Words can't describe how I'm feeling right now. How I wish this was all a bad dream. God called you home too early brother. Who knew the last time I seen you would be the last time I would ever hug you, be the last time I ever saw your beautiful smile. We shared so many memories together, memories that I will forever cherish. Although I know your now reunited with mom, the pain of not having you here will never go away. Rest in peace brother, I love you & miss you so much 💔
