Eulogy of Marcile (Marcy) Jane Evans-Zimmer - June 2, 1953 to December 1, 2020

by: Jim Zimmer

Marcy was always first a caring mother who, of late, loved and adored her two grandchildren . She was known to Caleb and Lauren as "Grandma Coco" attaching her beloved dogs name as an identifier for the grandchildren to know which grandma they were talking to. She loved her special and endearing title, her grandchildren and family.

Marcy rarely did anything truly for herself, always going out of her way to make sure everyone else, especially her family was happy and healthy to the fullest.

The only time Marcy did anything remotely for herself was after being 'prodded' into it by friends and family, Marcy was never selfish and would only think of herself if everything else and everyone else was satisfied. On her death bed she was more worried about how Coco and I would survive because she knew her pancreatic cancer was un-survivable. I think she was expressing her sorrow at leaving everything and everyone she loved and cared for.

It is difficult to understand why after surviving her first colon cancer for five years only to be struck down again, but she glorified in and was grateful for those years, as some of the most wonderful as well as fulfilling of our lives

She loved her business, I think because she was good at it and was, if you will, an extension of her kindheartedness and giving nature. Marcy loved communicating and corresponding with her customers as if they were family. That business is now closed and many customers expressed sorrow and regret at her passing with kind words.

There is so much more I could say, Marcy you were loved by many. Our 48th wedding anniversary will be on December 31, 2020, and she reminded anyone who would listen. Marcy did so love holidays especially Christmas. As we say goodbye to Marcy and move towards the new day don't forget how she would love to be here with us all.

I ask myself, as we go through time what will become of those of us left behind?

I, as I am sure you, will miss her until hopefully at some point someone will miss us as much as we miss Marcy.

It is then, for myself, that I know my deep and ultimate loss and sorrow shall finally be over.

Love Ya Marcy! You're finally home! Sincerely, your husband, Jim Zimmer
