

Mary Ann Endicott-Porter

September 12, 1933 - September 18, 2017

Mary Ann passed away after an extended illness. She was born in Red Bluff, September 12, 1933, having just celebrated her 84th Birthday.

She attended Richfield Elementary and Corning Union High. After her marriage to Tom Porter in 1951, they relocated to Ventura, CA. After living there a number of years she returned Northern CA, having made her home in Red Bluff and Corning.

Mary Ann is survived by her two children, Cindy Davison and Mark Porter. Between them she has 4 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. She is also survived by her two brothers, sister, brother-in-law and several nieces and nephews.

Her life was devoted to being a prayer warrior for all of her family and friends, bringing comfort and love to all. She will be greatly missed.
