

Mary Jane McBrayer

February 26, 1933 - February 11, 2014

MARY McBRAYER Our world became a little more lonely as the doors of Heaven opened to welcome home Mary McBrayer. On her journey she will once again be joined by her Husband Willie McBrayer, her Mother Dorothy, her Father Lloyd Moore, her brother Robert Moore, Sisters Phyllis Hanks and Betty Duncan, all whom have made this wonderful journey before her and are there welcoming her home with open arms. Mary was born in Pasadena Ca, on February 26th 1933. She journeyed from Pasadena to Corning as a child with her family where she attended local schools and graduated from Corning High School. She spent most of the remainder of her life in Corning. Mary was employed at the Western Auto Store and at both the Corning Hospital and Saint Elizabeth Hospital. Mary will be remembered as a caring person. She would always open her home to her friends and always extended the same hospitality to her children's friends. Her passions were her family, singing, playing the piano and listening to music. Mary shared her life with her Husband Willie McBrayer and together they had four children whom survive her, they are Joi Gonzalez and her partner Alton Thurston of Corning, Joe McBrayer and his Wife Kori of Corning, Melissa Gove and her husband Randy of El Dorado Hills and Angel Mason and her husband Laine of Corning. She is also survived by nine grandchildren, Chancey, Jason, Bo, Breanna, Allie, Joshua, Adam, Morgan and Hunter. She was also blessed with her great granddaughter, Addison. Graveside services will be held Sunset Hills Cemetary at 10am on Saturday, February 22, 2014
