Thank you in advance!

I close my eyes for the last time
For the last time I see your face
For the last time I feel you holding me
For the last time I'm feeling pain

I open my eyes in a new world
Where smiles are what I found
Laughter is the only music heard
No more pain to be felt

I'm in the arms of the angels
They're holding me tight
Comforting me
Giving me joy

Don't cry my friend
You'll join me one day
And only then you'll know
What is it to be
In the arms of the angels
