

Sean Ray Jenkins

November 20, 1965 - February 13, 2026

Sean Ray Jenkins, loving father to many, loyal friend to all.

Sean was born on November 20th, 1965, in Reno, Nevada, to his mother, Loretta Fay Austin, and his father, Earl Clayton Jenkins. Sadly, it came to a time none of us ever thought we would have to go through so soon. Most of you guys know Sean from his wild behavior as a pre-teen to his teen years. But for the last 17 years, I've known him as a best friend.

Sean grew up in Reno, Nevada, and then moved to California with his mom, grandma, grandpa, his little sister Lisa, and his older brother Curtis. Sean was a wild child, as he liked to call himself, partying and drinking just being a kid. Soon after, he joined the military in the Army branch and served for a little bit. Not knowing when he comes home for Christmas leave, he'd go to a party and meet the girl he'd spend the rest of his life with.

Sean met his wife Anne at a Christmas party the day after Christmas, and he told her that when he came back from the army, he was going to marry her. And sure as heck that's what he did, not even a year later, on May 2, 1986. Sean and Anne then had four beautiful children: Cherise, Christina, Jessica, and Rebecca.

Sean had dedicated the last 20 years of his life to helping raise his grandkids, even making three of them his own by adopting them. He soon took in and took care of most of his other grandkids, and for that, they are all thankful enough to have called you a replacement dad.

Sean would have never wanted us to cry; he would want us to remember him as we all did before he got sick and passed away. He'd want us to laugh, have fun, and remember all the good times we had with him.

Sean is preceded in death by his mother, Loretta Austin; his father, Clayton Jenkins; his grandma, Lula Mae; his grandpa, Guy Austin; his uncle, Johnny Austin; his aunt, Lynn Austin; his daughter, Rebecca Jenkins; his sister, Lisa VanDoorn; and his nephew, Cyle Cook.

Sean is survived by his wife, Anne Jenkins, his kids, Cherise, Christina, Jessica, Hailie, Mackenzie, Kaylee, Virginia, and Christian. Also, his grandkids, Alec, Vanessa, Jericho, Kody, Hayden, Destiny, and Ember. His siblings are Sherill, Geneva, Gary, Richard, and Curtis. His nephews Miles Jr, Ryan, Blake, and Matthew, and his nieces Mariah, Kaylene, Cheriann, and Caryssa. And lastly, his 10 great nieces and 5 great nephews.

“ When you look to the sky, don't be sad and don't wonder why, just know that I live where the eagles fly.”

Tribute Wall

“ Rest in peace, my buddy! I can hear you now, listening to our favorite song! The Beatles "Walrus" coo coo ca Choo! I love you, and we will see each other again one day! Say hello to Jesus and the family for me! 🙏🙌🙏

---

Tracy Scheuering - February 25 at 12:42 PM