

Susan Swig Blackburn

August 30, 1937 - July 26, 2025

Susan, born to Irving and Mary Swig, was raised in Hawaii. She moved to California where she met and married Hewlett Todd.

They enjoyed living on a small farm with many beloved animals. Later, she married Samuel Blackburn, and acquired skills in ranching and working on a dairy.

She was preceded in death by her husbands, Hewlett Todd, and Samuel Blackburn; and siblings, Philip Swig and Barbara Swig.

She is survived by her children, Ginny Todd, Hewlett Todd, Joyce Todd, and Ruth (Ben) Myhre; grandchildren, Adam Todd, Chase Myhre, Brook Myhre, and Seth Blackburn; sister, Nancy Swig; sister-in-law, Maureen Swig; and cousin, L.S. "Angie" Bastek.

She was passionate about all animals. She loved life on the ranch and the dairy, horseback riding, reading, painting, swimming and especially watching her grandchildren's activities.

Her family expresses their deepest gratitude to the compassionate caregivers at Pleasant Place in Corning, CA, and the dedicated Enloe Hospice team for their exceptional care and support.
