Thomas Lincoln Chavez Obituary

Thomas Lincoln Chavez, "Tommy," "Tomasito," died at age 16 at home in Red Bluff on March 16, 2026. He was born in Red Bluff on November 5, 2009, to his parents, Rutilio and Rachel Chavez. He was an honor roll student, a Lector in church, and an exceptional young man. He did yardwork for spending money and served his family diligently, cutting wood and doing chores regularly. He had just acquired his driver's license and intended to obtain a part-time job. He had applied to Shasta College's CNA program.

Tommy loved taking long drives in the country with family, drawing, hunting small game, fishing, target practice, cooking, eating, being silly, gaming, and going out to eat with friends. His life exemplified his values of diligence, integrity, and loyalty. He was strikingly handsome, with curly hair that always smelled amazing. He is infinitely patient and kind. God designed him to be exceptionally strong and steady with true aim. He is lighthearted, funny, and delightful to be with. Thomas is survived by his parents and his sister and brother, Liliana and Jacob Chavez.

Obituario de Thomas Lincoln Chávez

Thomas Lincoln Chávez, “Tommy,” “Tomasito,” falleció a los 16 años en su hogar en

Red Bluff el 16 de marzo de 2026. Nació en Red Bluff el 5 de noviembre de 2009, hijo de Rutilio y Rachel Chavez. Fue un estudiante destacado en el cuadro de honor, lector en la Iglesia y un joven excepcional. Realizaba trabajos de jardinería para obtener dinero y servía a su familia con diligencia, cortando leña para su familia con regularidad. Acababa de obtener su licencia de conducir y tenía la intención de conseguir un empleo a tiempo parcial. Había solicitado su aplicación al programa de Asistente de Enfermería Certificado (CNA) de Shasta College.

A Tommy le encantaba dar largos paseos en la camioneta en el campo con su familia, dibujar, cazar caza menor, pescar, practicar tiro al blanco, cocinar, comer, jugar videojuegos y salir a comer con sus amigos. Su vida ejemplificaba sus valores de diligencia, integridad y lealtad. Era extraordinariamente apuesto, con un cabello rizado que siempre olía de maravilla. Era infinitamente paciente y bondadoso. Dios lo diseñó para ser excepcionalmente fuerte y firme, con una puntería certera. Era alegre, divertido y una compañía encantadora. A Thomas le sobreviven sus padres, así como sus hermanos, Liliana y Jacob Chavez.
