“ *To Vicky's Family,
My husband and I are so sorry to hear about our friend and classmate Vicky. I knew her before we started school way back when; and my husband meeting her in high school. The last time we saw her for a short visit was at Lassen Steak House a few months ago. She was her sparkly self. We were so happy to give her a hug a talk with her for a few minutes. She was with a friend and one of you. (sorry I don't remember which one). We will miss her. She was a joy on earth.*

Our heart felt sympathy and prayers.

“ One of my best and funniest memories of your Mom (our Vickie) is when the four of us (Vickie, Ted, Christopher and I) went to New Orleans and had the best time ever! First, Christopher thought our plane was going to crash because we were going through a lightning storm, then Ted got robbed (not once, but twice) and then Vickie, oh our dear Vickie.... She decided no one was going to rob her! She went to the ladies room, then came out with her hands on her hips and said, "No one's getting my money, I put it all right here" (pointing to her chest) and as she walked (still with her hands on her hips) all her money was falling out of her bra and onto the floor! We were laughing so hard and she said, "What's so funny?" We pointed to the floor and when she looked down and saw her money, she said "Oh, shoot! Guess my boobs are shrinking!" We all laughed so much together we were laughing with tears streaming down our faces! I helped Vickie pick up her money and asked if she had it all and she then said, in only a way Vickie could and with that cute smirk, "You betcha!"

I could tell you so many more great stories, we all had so much fun together, often with Chris and Mo (Maureen). Ted and Vic together were quite the "team" and we all loved them so much. Living on Regatta with them and the rest of the Regatta Gang we made the very best memories. I would love to tell you about those memories sometime. Vickie and I were so close, as she was with others, but to me, she was more than I could ever describe in just a few words, a friend like no other. But, I do remember when I bought a wine glass for her that was inscribed and when I gave it to her she looked at it, smiled, and said, That's right! "F Cancer!" That's what was inscribed on the wine glass.

See you on the other side, Vic. (xoxo)
